In the very heart of one of the most beautiful medieval cities in Europe, designer Eva Jiricna has managed to create a modern masterpiece. The 109- room Hotel Josef in Prague's old town, opened in June 2002, offers a design concept that elegantly blends the most modern elements with the rich history of its surroundings.

Location Hotel Josef is located in the city centre of Prague, five minutes walking distance from the Old Town Square, Wenceslas Square, Charles Bridge, Powder Tower, Opera and concert halls. Josef offers 102 sqm courtyard, with recreational value in the middle of two hotel buildings and is surrounded by the stock exchange, ministries, bank headquarters, office centers and restaurants.

Category International 4-star hotel designed by Eva Jiricna, Architects London, an architectural team that has a well-established reputation for creating uniquely modern interiors, which combine the traditional comforts, sumptuous fabrics, bespoke furniture and splendor of the world with the innovate technologies of modern design.
